FAILURE | SHAME

Mark 14:50 And they all left him and fled.

Mark 10:28 Peter began to say to him, "See, we have left everything and followed you."

A silhouette of a person running is visible in the background of the second text block, positioned behind the word "we". The person is running from left to right, and the background is a warm, orange-brown gradient, suggesting a sunset or sunrise.

Mark 10:50 And throwing off his cloak, he sprang up and came to Jesus.

After realizing his error, Riegels (hand on head) sits dejectedly among his teammates.

A dark brown branch with several pink and purple flower buds is shown against a light blue and green background. The buds are in various stages of opening, with some showing vibrant pink and purple petals. The branch is positioned diagonally across the frame. A semi-transparent dark grey horizontal bar is overlaid across the middle of the image, containing the text "BEGIN AGAIN" in white, bold, uppercase letters.
